Bring Your Whole Family to the 2nd Annual Heritage Day

You're invited to the 2nd Annual Heritage Day on Sunday, August 26, 2007 from 12p to 5p at Children's Discovery Museum of San José.

Help us kickoff the event by participating in the 12:30pm lion dance procession guided by the Far East Dragon and Lion Dance company. Witness stunning performances such as African dance, Aztec presentations, and Indian classical dance. Throughout the day, engage in cultural activities including crafting paper lanterns and creating Native Indian medicine bags. Become captivated with tales from other cultures conveyed by a variety of amateur and professional story tellers, including local elected official San Jose Councilmember Pete Constant and Assemblymember Joe Coto.

Heritage Day will provide attendees of all ages with an interactive and delightful glimpse into the rich diversity within the Bay Area. Mark your calendars for this exciting opportunity to explore different ethnic cultures and their unique heritages.

General admission to the Children's Discovery Museum is $8 per person and tickets will be sold at the door. The first 200 families to register online at www.summerheritageday.org will receive two free Heritage Day tickets! Visit the website today.

The 2nd Annual Heritage Day is collaboration amongst three Bay Area non-profits, the Viet Heritage Society, Children's Discovery Museum of San José and Vision New America.

Viet Heritage Society seeks to preserve and promote Vietnamese history through the establishment of cultural venues and educational programming that fosters community understanding and appreciation. VHS is currently constructing the nation's first Viet Heritage Gardens here in San José. The Vietnamese Heritage Garden, situated on 4.2 acres of Kelley Park, will serve as a gathering place where people of diverse backgrounds can gather and learn about Vietnamese culture.
